

ABOUT KAREN HUNTER

Karen Hunter is a Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist, professor, publisher, and change agent. She has co-authored eight New York Times bestsellers, including books with Queen Latifah, LL Cool J, and Wendy Williams. As CEO of Karen Hunter Publishing, an imprint of Simon & Schuster, Karen has published No. 1 New York Times bestseller True You by pop icon Janet Jackson, as well as bestsellers with Kris Jenner and the late E. Lynn Harris.

A journalist with the New York Daily News for 16 years, Karen covered sports, news, business, and served on the editorial board, where she was a member of the 1999 Pulitzer Prize- and Polk Award-winning teams. She was also the paper's first African-American female news columnist.

In 2015, Karen was named one of the “Heavy Hundred” (The 100 Most Important Radio Talk Show Hosts In America) by industry bible Talkers Magazine for her work on The Karen Hunter Show on SiriusXM's channel 126 (3 p.m.-6 p.m. EST Monday-Friday).

Karen, a New Jersey native and Drew University graduate, is also a full-time professor and Distinguished Lecturer in the Film & Media Department at Hunter College in New York City.
