

MICHELLE A. MOORE McNEIL, M.P.H.

Biography

Michelle is the Director, Health Services at the MTA – Metro North Railroad in New York City. There she manages the Occupational Health Services contract and is creating a Culture of Health through a comprehensive health and well-being program for MNR. She was the Administrator of the Employee Assistance Program at the Broward County Public School, serving the mental/behavioral health needs of over 30,000 employees. She has a B.A. in Psychology from Hunter College in New York, and a M.P.H. from Nova Southeastern University in Florida. For over 20 years her work has focused primarily on mental/behavioral health, integrated approaches to health, and the dimensions of health and well-being. She is a public health consultant, speaker and trainer, cancer survivor, wife, mom and a budding yogi.