

Sherry D. Williams, Esq., is an experienced executive with a strong track record of leveraging legal expertise to mitigate risk and facilitate business growth.

In August 2016, Ms. Williams was named Vice President, Deputy General Counsel and Global Chief Ethics & Compliance Officer for Jabil, Inc., a Fortune 200 company headquartered in St. Petersburg, Florida. Jabil provides electronic manufacturing services and solutions, including electronic design, production and product management services to companies in the aerospace, automotive, computing, defense, digital home, energy, healthcare, industrial, instrumentation, lifestyles, mobility, mold, networking, packaging, peripherals, storage, telecommunications and wearable technology industries.

Ms. Williams has also served as a Compliance Consultant, and is formerly a senior executive with Halliburton Company, where from 2005 to 2014 she took on roles of increasing responsibility, including leading the company's global ethics and compliance function. Ms. Williams also practiced law with the AmLaw 100 law firm of K&L Gates LLP in the areas of complex commercial litigation, employment, and class-action defense.

Ms. Williams is the recipient of many honors. In 2014 she was selected by the Girl Scouts of San Jacinto Council as a Success to Significance Honoree. In 2013, Ms. Williams was named one of Houston's 50 Most Influential Women by Houston Woman Magazine. Over her career, she has been featured in numerous publications, including InsideCounsel Magazine's "R-3 100", the "Power 100" list of the 100 Most Powerful Black Lawyers in America by On Being a Black Lawyer Magazine, Diversity & The Bar Magazine, The Minority Business News (cover), and she was featured in the "Women on the Rise" chapter in Courageous Counsel: Conversations with Women General Counsel in the Fortune 500 by Michelle Coleman Mayes & Kara Baysinger.

Ms. Williams is a much sought after public speaker and expert panelist on many topics, including ethics and compliance, internal investigations, client management and client development for outside counsel, legal career management, work life management, executive leadership, diversity and women's personal career development.

Ms. Williams earned her bachelor's degree from the University of Oklahoma in 1992 and is a 1995 graduate of the University Of Miami School Of Law. She is a member of the state bars of Florida, New Jersey and New York.