

Adamma DuCille serves as the Assistant Director of Training and Capacity Building for the Children's Services Council of Broward County's Public Affairs and Organizational Development department. With a career long commitment to serving children and families in Broward County, Adamma has over 19 years of experience in the development and delivery of capacity building trainings, programs and initiatives. Her key areas of expertise include: leadership development, Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI), board development, building strategic relationships, organizational culture change and strategic planning. She has supported the efforts of several major non-profit organizations in improving service delivery, adopting culturally inclusive, equitable and diverse programming practices, with an emphasis on staff engagement and retention strategies.